A BEST PRACTICE INITIATIVE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

FREE DISTRIBUTION OF BOOKS

Empowering B.Com Students with Knowledge

In a remarkable initiative aimed at promoting education and supporting students, the Department of Commerce organized a free distribution of books for B.Com students. This event, held in the presence of the esteemed Principal Dr. J. Usharani, showcased the department's commitment to academic excellence and student welfare.

Objective of the Initiative

The primary objective of this book distribution program was to provide essential learning resources to students who may face financial constraints in acquiring textbooks. The initiative also sought to enhance accessibility to quality education, ensuring that every student has the necessary materials to excel in their studies.

Event Highlights

The event was inaugurated by Principal Dr. J. Usharani, who emphasized the importance of such initiatives in fostering a positive learning environment. In her address, she appreciated the efforts of the Department of Commerce in taking proactive steps toward student development.

The faculty members and staff played a crucial role in organizing the event, ensuring a smooth and efficient distribution process. Several students expressed their gratitude, acknowledging that these books would greatly help them in their academic journey.

Impact on Students

This initiative has had a significant impact on the student community:

- Reduced Financial Burden: Many students struggle to afford expensive textbooks, and this initiative provided much-needed relief.
- Enhanced Learning Opportunities: With access to essential books, students can now focus better on their studies.
- Encouragement for Academic Excellence: The event served as motivation for students to take their studies more seriously and perform better in exams.

Conclusion

The free distribution of books by the Department of Commerce, under the leadership of Principal Dr. J. Usharani, is a best practice that sets an example for other institutions. It highlights the importance of student-centric policies and the role of educational institutions in creating an inclusive learning environment.

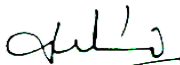

This initiative not only empowers students academically but also reinforces the institution's dedication to knowledge sharing and student welfare. The event was a resounding success and is expected to be continued in the future for the benefit of upcoming batches.
